Mrs. Whatsit: I just wanted you to know, there really is such a thing as a tesseract.

Create your own tesseract

Fill the box with colors, objects, and other “glorious” items.

Let's meet Mrs. Who! She uses other people's words to talk.
Write your favorite sayings or quotes on the book pages below. You can also write quotes from the book or movie.

Love looks not with the eye, but
with the mind. -
William Shakespeare, British

Planning is essential. - Winston Churchill, British

Life without love is like a tree without
blossom or fruit. -
Gibran Lebanese

You need to get up, get out and get something. How will you make it if you never even try? - OutKast, American

The wound is the place where the light enters you. - Rumi

Color the design reflecting the patch or colors of your choice.

The three children have just landed on the planet Uriel on a mission to find Meg and Charles Wallace's father. Located on the patch, (from left to right Calvin, Charles Wallace, and Meg). As you can see from the edges around the patch the talking flowers have appeared in great color. As explained by Mrs. Whatsit, Which and Who, they have to go on a mission and "tesser" through the universe looking for him. (the colorful glorious representation of swirls and strips)

Until they find out that he is on Camazotz, the dark side of the universe. The darker circles and background on the patch represents the IT, danger and darkness to come. As seen on the clock, they have entered a universe of light and darkness. Mrs. Which tells Meg to BE A WARRIOR and use her strength and confidence to save her family. They cannot help them any longer. "We only have the ability to tesser where we find light."

How does it end?

Sometimes things are not always as they seem.
Don't give into the IT.
